After class ended, only Savannah and I messaged in the group 1 in the discord server for class. We ended up messaging each other privately to discuss ideas.

Online ordering vs. Inventory

4/3/2024

After class ended, Savannah and I have messaged the discord server again in attempt to reach Hannah who has been active in canvas. We have decided on the inventory management system.

Turned in the proposal for the discussion board for this week that Savannah had written up and Kizzie has read it for any changes or additions to it. Kanban is in the github and link was provided.
